

ML-SR-90 / Smart Stud

Is an intelligent system for physical speed reduction of vehicles in controlled speed zones.

The system has a speed meter installed that will activate the Road Studs.

Has two types of warnings for the driver: to raise their height above the ground and to light up according has two types of warnings for the driver: to raise their height above the ground and to light up according to the speed of the approaching vehicles.

Is has several levels of warning:

- Proper speed: The road stud is at ground level and has a green light.
- Excessive speed (inadequate by excess): the road stud is slightly above ground level and has a yellow light.
- Inadequate speed (exceeding legal limits): the road stud is on its higher level above ground and has a red light.
- Speed reduction of vehicles in controlled zones.
- Hardwired Road Stud with 2 colors of LED signaling.
- Hardwired Road Stud with 2 levels of elevation.
- System warn drivers for the need to reduce the speed to prevent accidents.

